Known defects associated with the property.

The decking that is the subject of the requisition on the LIM is from work completed by a prior owner. Our vendor, prior to purchasing the house obtained a letter from the engineer saying the standard of construction was fine. Below is a response from a Senior Compliance Officer at Auckland Council regarding the requisition noted in the LIM (a copy of the email is attached to the LIM file):

The Requisition is already on the property file as a notation. It is effectively "dormant" as Auckland Council have decided to not take any further action on it. We wouldn't include a statement other than what is already shown on the LIM report.

Other disclosures that may be important to purchasers.
